

Michael W. Lanstrum, B.A.

Instructional Specialist, Developmental Education

Michael W. Lanstrum serves as a Mathematics Instructional Specialist in Developmental Education and Learning Services at the Western Campus of Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C®), where he has been employed since 2003.

Lanstrum earned a bachelor's degree in applied mathematics from Kent State University, and tutoring certification from the National Tutoring Association. He has co-authored three study guides including pre-GED mathematics, AP Statistics, and Algebra II, and has written numerous articles.

Lanstrum has been honored with two teaching awards and a Young Alumni Achievement Award from Kent State University.

Speech Topics:

- Historical women in mathematics
- Study skills