John Dolinar
Executive Director, Enterprise Infrastructure Services

John Dolinar is the Executive Director Enterprise Infrastructure Services at Cuyahoga Community College.

John has been with the college 31 years and served previously as the Director, Office of Safe and Secure Computing. His 30+ years of IT experience range from programming, network support and configuration, information security and project management.

John holds a Master of Science in Information Security and Assurance from Western Governors University, a Bachelor of Science in IT security from Western Governors University and an Associates of Applied Business in Data processing from Cuyahoga Community College.