

Keisha Gonzalez joined the Cleveland Foundation in June 2018 as program officer for community revitalization and engagement. She is responsible for supporting the foundation's social impact investing initiatives through the management of both current and future investment opportunities that will lead to equitable economic growth.

Gonzalez works in collaboration with her colleagues to position the foundation's strategy for community development innovation, supporting efforts to strengthen the sector's capacity and appetite for innovative risk.