Cuyahoga Community College Foundation Scholarships

Cuyahoga Community College Foundation Scholarships

Whether you are pursuing an associate degree, preparing to transfer to a four-year institution, taking classes to obtain a workforce training certificate, or seeking to upgrade your skills to move into a better job, investing your time and financial resources in a college education will provide a lifetime of benefits for you and your family.

Although Cuyahoga Community College (Tri-C) strives to keep tuition affordable, paying for college can be a challenge for many students.

- More than half of all Tri-C students need to work while attending classes
- Many students are adult learners who are raising families
- 58% of Tri-C students are the first generation in their families to attend college
- Many students have some, but not all of the financial resources needed to reach their educational goals

Since its establishment in 1973, the Tri-C Foundation has received donations from individuals, corporations, government agencies, foundations, and other organizations to support student success. During the 2021-2022 academic year, more than 3,200 students received scholarships. Not only do scholarships provide assistance with tuition, many scholarships also offer assistance with fees, books, and other educational expenses. A list of more than 150 Cuyahoga Community College Foundation scholarships with eligibility criteria is provided on the following pages. Current and prospective students are encouraged to complete a Scholarship Application.

- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and include the federal student aid code for Tri-C (003040).
- Complete the online scholarship application. (https://tri-c.academicworks.com/users/sign_in) Please note that the online scholarship application requires the upload of an essay, which can be either a Word or PDF document.
- Award notifications will be mailed from May to October each year for the priority awarding period. Students will receive an initial award letter by mail, changes in your award package will result in an email.
- All scholarship candidates should have at least a 2.5 or higher cumulative grade point average to be considered for most Tri-C Foundation scholarship awards and be enrolled in at least (6) credit hours per semester for the entire scholarship period.
- All scholarship recipients are asked to submit a Thank You letter to donors for scholarship awards once a scholarship award is received.
- Students who have applied for scholarships will receive an email confirmation. Changes to the status of that application will result in an email within 90 days of submission. Students should check their My Tri-C Space account for the status of their scholarship application.
- Students who have applied for scholarships and have not been awarded will receive a notice by email. Student should check their My Tri-C Space account for the status of the scholarship application or login to your application.

Steve Popovich Scholarship

Steve Popovich, the late Cleveland International Records founder, played a monstrous role in the careers of artists ranging from Meat Loaf to Michael Jackson, and many more. In memory of Steve Popovich's lifetime of work and encouragement of young artists, the Steve Popovich Foundation created this scholarship to encourage young people to find their way in the music and recording arts industry.

Steve Popovich has been described as having "coal dust in his veins and kielbasa in his soul" for his blue collar integrity in discovering and promoting artists from polka legend Frank Yankovic to Bruce Springsteen, Johnny Cash, and Barbra Streisand. He started his career at CBS Records as the youngest ever head of Promotion at the age of 26. His storied career at multiple recording companies has impacted an enormous array of artists from almost every genre of music, winning Grammys and virtually every conceivable award in the business. Over the course of his career, Popovich encouraged aspiring singer/songwriters, musicians and producers to follow their dreams. His driving motto was "Be stubbornly passionate about your beliefs". This scholarship will continue his legacy by helping young individuals who are enrolled in a music program at Tri-C, to help support the music making of tomorrow.
