

Breakout Group 5

1 Reflecting on our vision... Consider the context and vision casting message you just heard, what resonated with you the most? What challenges do you see?

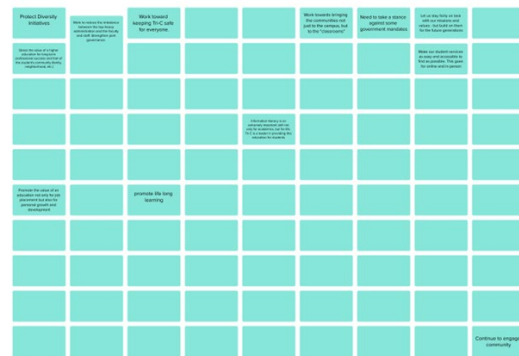

2 Reflecting on our mission... What unique strengths or characteristics does Tri-C have that differentiate it from other local educational options that give our students a competitive advantage in getting a good paying job or getting their BA?

3 Reflecting on our mission... What skills, knowledge or competencies do you think are most critical for students entering today's job market, either immediately after leaving Tri-C or after further education?

4 Reflecting on our values... What institutional values might we need to nurture or develop further to meet the challenges ahead?

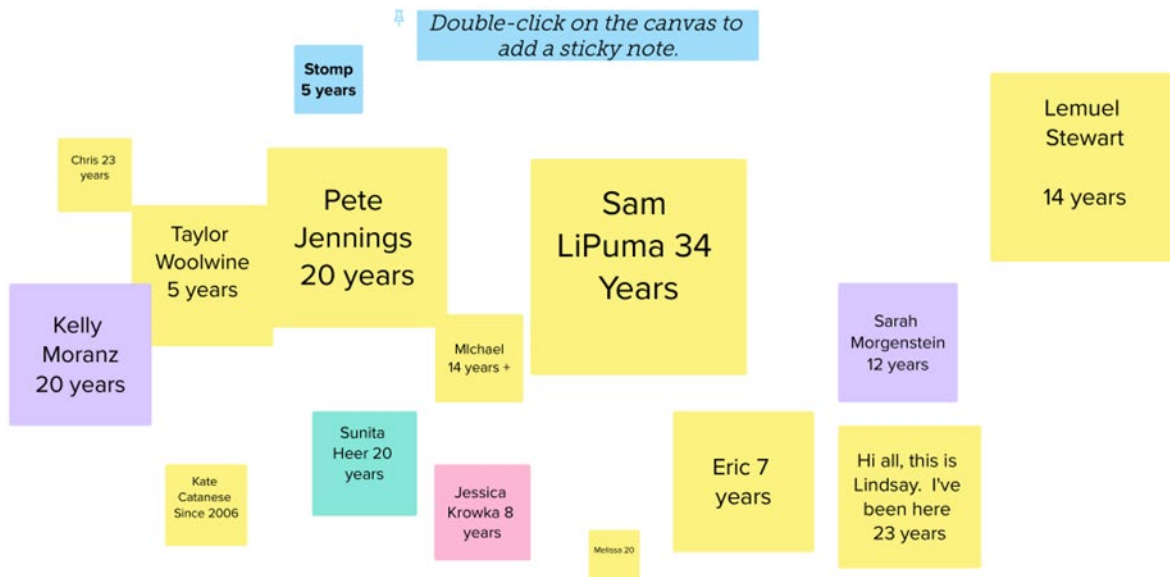

Strategies to Thrive

What strategies should Tri-C consider to do more than meet the challenges ahead, but thrive?

Strategies to Thrive

Add a sticky note with your NAME and how many YEARS you've been connected with Tri-C

Listening Session Summary
Faculty
Thursday, February 20, 2025

Contents

Question 13
 Summary3
 Responses.....3
Question 23
 Summary5
 Responses.....5
Question 37
 Summary7
 Responses.....7
Question 47
 Summary9
 Responses.....9
Strategies to Thrive.....11
 Summary11
 Responses.....11

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

Question 1

Reflecting on our Vision: Consider the context and vision casting message you just heard, what resonated with you the most? What challenges do you see?

Summary

Proactive transformation in strategic planning requires trust and buy-in from all stakeholders to address change fatigue and ensure alignment with completed plans. Emphasizing intention, creativity, flexibility, and innovation is crucial. Strategic plans often fail due to external and internal challenges, including legislative interference, declining enrollment, and the need to adapt to new modalities.

Community colleges, despite facing enrollment declines, are better equipped to weather these changes. Collaboration and broadening enrollment outreach are vital, as is addressing the long-term impact of online instruction and maintaining engagement amidst evolving educational demands.

Responses

Campus Engagement and Enrollment

Broaden definition of community in enrollment outreach

Enrollment

How do we maintain campus engagement and energy with many new modalities

Need to capture new enrollment demographic

Community Collaboration and Legislation

Build bridges in various areas

Federal and state legislation

Idlers

Working together as a community

Higher Education Challenges

Community colleges are better equipped to weather the future than 4-years

Continuous Decline in enrollment enrollment ski slope, not a cliff. downward trend incredible value of comm college!

lack of ROI for higher ed not mentioned: student support services

That many students aren't employed in the fields they graduated from

The drop in enrollment is scary.

We can't keep operating like it's the good ol days of high enrollment

Online Instruction and Educational Impact not mentioned: long term effect of online instruction

Perhaps Tri-C needs to consider CCP academic programs like CSU is doing with their education program.

The impact of web based instruction and COVID with respect to on-ground presence

Other

Outside forces Interfering with the college Mission

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

The challenge facing us whereby the federal and state governments trying to dictate what we teach and how we teach it. As well as eliminating programs that support our students success - DEI are the supports that ENSURE SUCCESS for our students. This directly interferes with our mission and vision.

Turf wars between institutions

What is the purpose of higher education?

Strategic Planning Transformation

Adapting is going to be necessary

Change fatigue

change, flexibility, innovation

Change External vs. Internal

Day to day uncertainty is a challenge importance of intention and creative thinking.

Need to be proactive

Program development/revision takes a long time.

That the strategic plans never align with what is actually completed

The idea that we have to change is one I am glad was said aloud.

The unknown has me a bit jittery. I can't imagine what we will look like after transforming.

Transformation needs trust and buy-in from all stakeholders.

What does transformation really mean in the context of strategic planning?

Why don't strategic plans generate success?

With such a rapidly changing world, I think it may be a challenge to figure out where we need to land. It seems like the future is a fast-moving target.

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

Question 2

Reflecting on our Mission: What unique strengths or characteristics does Tri-C have that differentiate it from other local educational options that give our students a competitive advantage in getting a good paying job or getting their BA?

Summary

Tri-C offers highly affordable tuition, making education accessible and minimizing financial barriers. The college provides a wide range of programs, flexible schedules, and multiple campuses to meet students' academic and career goals. The compassionate and high-quality faculty support a diverse and inclusive environment.

Tri-C also prepares students for the workforce with job placement opportunities and up-to-date technology, fostering communication and collaboration among a diverse student body.

The institution serves the community by offering various modalities, transfer options, and free services, ensuring students can succeed both academically and professionally.

Responses

Affordable Education Options

Affordability

Affordable Tuition

Cost is rarely an impact on one's success

Cost and accessibility

Ease of transfer

Highly affordable in an age of skyrocketing tuition elsewhere

low cost and accessibility

Offers an excellent education at affordable prices

One of things we have to offer is low tuition. With so many doubts about the effectiveness of a college degree, I like how we can offer a low cost way to test the waters.

Value of a Tri-C education and affordable price we are cheaper than other colleges

Community Engagement Focus

It speaks to serving the community.

Strength in our diversity when we're at our best, the community created here

Diverse Learning Modalities

more modalities

Range of educational options and opportunities

Range of modalities

Several Transfer Options

Diverse Program Offerings

Job placement at the end of some degrees such as Auto Tech

Flexible schedule to meet student needs

Geographical diversity of four campuses allows options for the county residents many campuses

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

Multiple free services that allow students and residents to be successful
They are attending school in the same area they are likely to be employed
Tri-C offers several programs to meet student's academic and career goals

Other

Cost of education is much lower, allowing students to complete their education with lower overhead cost and debt

It addresses both transfer and workforce programs

No barrier to enrollment...Supports issues of justice

Prepares students to be responsible contributing members of their community

Quality Teaching Approach

Compassion of faculty and staff

High quality instruction

Incredibly passionate and empathetic instructors and staff

Outstanding faculty

Quality of faculty

teaching oriented

Student-Centered Environment

Communication skill-building: in-person classes with students of all ages and backgrounds collaborating

Prepares students to work in today's diverse workforce with cutting edge technology

Provides a diverse experience with students, faculty, and staff coming from a variety of backgrounds.

unique student centered environment.

Varying cultures allow students to grow beyond the classroom

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

Question 3

Reflecting on our Mission: What skills, knowledge or competencies do you think are most critical for students entering today's job market, either immediately after leaving Tri-C or after further education?

Summary

Developing strong communication skills, both oral and written, is essential. Effective social interactions, critical thinking, problem solving, and adaptability are vital. Students should demonstrate professionalism, cultural sensitivity, digital and information literacy, and the ability to work in teams. Time management, self-discipline, and lifelong learning are crucial, along with technical and technology skills.

Understanding and engaging with diverse backgrounds and separating fact from fiction are important competencies.

Responses

Communication Skills Development

Communication both verbal and written communication skills/ interpersonal

Conducting yourself in a professional and collegial manner

Effective social interactions

Effective verbal communication

Knowing social/professional boundaries

Need to develop strong and effective communication skills (oral and written)

Netiquette

Oral Communication - Demonstrate effective verbal and nonverbal communication for an intended audience that is clear, organized, and delivered effectively following the standard conventions of the language reading and writing comprehension strong communication skills - both in writing and orally

Strong writing skills

Strong writing skills and ability to communicate well

Written Communication - Demonstrate effective written communication for an intended audience that follows genre/disciplinary conventions that reflect clarity organization and editing skills

Written COmmunication - demonstrate written communication for an intended audience that follows genre/disciplinary conventions that reflect clarity, organization, and editing skills

Critical Thinking Skills

Civic Responsibility - Analyzing the results of actions and inactions with the likely effects on the larger global and local communities

Critical and creative thinking - Analyze, evaluate and synthesize information in order to consider problems/ideas and transform them in innovative or imaginative ways

Critical Thinking

Critical thinking and problem solving skills

Critical thinking skills

Criticcal thinkingand problem solving skills

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

Quantitative reasoning -Analyze problems, including real world scenarios, through the application of mathematical and numerical concepts and skills, including the interpretation of data, tables,charts, or graphs
They need critical thinking skills.

Digital Literacy and Information Skills

Ability to discern disinformation as well as use AI ethically

Computer literacy

digital literacy

Information and media literacy . Understanding truth, misinformation, and disinformation!

information literacy

Information literacy - the ability to decipher fact from fiction and use empirical evidence to make claims about the world; Acquire, evaluate, and use information from credible sources in order to meet information needs for a specific research purpose. In other words, we do not entertain pseudoscience, conspiracy theories, and historical denial “ we help students come to fact rather than fiction about the way the world works

Information literacy-separating the factual from opinion

Other

Media literacy

Problem solving skills

self reliance

Valuing personal ideas

Personal and Professional Skills

adaptability

Be at least proficient in their desired declared fields.

Cultural competencies and sensitivity- being able to engage with folks of differing backgrounds - Demonstrate sensitivity to the beliefs, views, values, and practices of cultures within and beyond the United States

Interviewing skills and resume building skills

Job/interviewing skills/Networking skills

Need to demonstrate the ability to work within groups and as individuals

Self Confidence

Social skills (i.e. knowing how to work with teams, employers, clients, etc.)

Softer skill: self-advocacy and self-promotion

Project Management and Time Skills

group/team working skills

project based deliverables

Students should demonstrate the ability to self-manage tasks effectively and maintain awareness of deadlines

Time management

Time management/executive functioning skills

Time management/self-discipline

Technical and Study Skills

Global awareness - we no longer are isolated life long learning skills

Study Skills

Technical skill by program

Technology skills

Technology skills beyond smartphones and tablets

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

Question 4

Reflecting on our Values: What institutional values might we need to nurture or develop further to meet the challenges ahead?

Summary

The faculty emphasized the importance of strengthening confidence and trust within the community, mutual respect, inclusion, equity, and transparency. They see a need for Tri-C to enhance its connection with the community, building trust with students through better enrollment, counseling, and registration processes. Academic excellence, integrity, and the value of a liberal arts education are highlighted, alongside a commitment to diversity that extends beyond race and includes accessibility for those with disabilities.

The importance of academic freedom, truth in the pursuit of knowledge, and respect for all individuals within a diverse community is stressed.

Tri-C is encouraged to support both individual and institutional improvement, protect its values, and maintain a sense of community by adhering to its outlined values.

Responses

Academic Excellence and Integrity

Academic Excellence and Integrity

Academic Freedom must be respected and valued.

How do we define respect? Is it based on opinions and beliefs? Work ethic? Work attitude?

integrity - personal integrity, academic integrity

Muat continue to value the respect for all people within our diverse community.

Must always strive for truth in pursuit of knowledge over disinformation.

Must continue to instill respect for academic integrity and excellence

Remain committed to academic excellence

The value of a liberal arts education

Community Engagement and Trust Building building trust with students: in the process of enrollment, counseling, registration, it's hard not to feel like simply a number. I think that's on Tri-C to reconcile

Confidence

equity

everyone is important and opinions should be valued inclusion

Mutual Respect

Respect

Strengthen confidence and trust

Transparency

Trust

trust and respect

trust from the community: public opinion of higher education has changed, and it may be up to Tri-C as an institution to reach out more to the community, to show what we do and how well we do it

Other

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

"Walk the walk" of what is already outlined in the values

Devotion to the education of the whole community whether they take a single class for fun, pursuing a certification or degree and/or transfer openness and listening

Protect our values from outside sources

Sense of community

Promoting Diversity and Inclusion accessibility for those with disabilities and other barriers, whether they be economic or based on social identity characteristics

diversity

Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Acceptance

inclusivity

Student Goal Support and Community Improvement

How do we assist students in measure individual goals?

self-improvement; improvement of the world and community we live in Supporting environment to achieve individual and institutional environment

Upholding Diversity Values

"Diversity" needs to be defined beyond race, color, creed

Hold fast to the value of diversity

Protect Diversity

We need to continue to have a commitment to diversity.

Listening Session Summary

Faculty

Thursday, February 20, 2025

Strategies to Thrive

What strategies should Tri-C consider to do more than meet the challenges ahead, but thrive?

Summary

Focus on balancing administration with faculty and staff, strengthening joint governance, and making student services easily accessible both online and in-person.

Ensure safety on campus, engage communities in classrooms, oppose certain government mandates, protect diversity initiatives, and emphasize the long-term value of higher education for professional success and personal growth.

Promote information literacy, lifelong learning, and maintain adherence to missions and values while engaging the community.

Responses

Campus Safety and Community Engagement

Need to take a stance against some government mandates

Work toward keeping Tri-C safe for everyone.

Work towards bringing the communities not just to the campus, but to the "classrooms"

Diversity and Education Advocacy

Continue to engage community

Information literacy is an extremely important skill not only for academics, but for life. Tri-C is a leader in providing this education for students.

Let us stay fairly on task with our missions and values - but build on them for the future generations promote life long learning

Promote the value of an education not only for job placement but also for personal growth and development

Protect Diversity Initiatives

Stress the value of a higher education for long-term professional success and that of the student's community (family, neighborhood, etc.)

Improving Student Services

Make our student services as easy and accessible to find as possible. This goes for online and in-person

Work to reduce the imbalance between the top-heavy administration and the faculty and staff. Strengthen joint governance.