

Textbook Adoption Training is Here – Follett Discover Adopt!

Follett Discover Adopt Initial Training Sessions are available in Compass on the Learner Home page: Bookstore – Follett Discover Adopt Training Session FDEV6622.

You can find materials on the Session Details page by clicking Show More, or you can find the materials on your transcript by clicking the drop-down arrow in the blue box and selecting View Training Details. Find Resources and download the PDF's. The training materials will walk you step by step through the process

We would also like to introduce Kym Redden as our new Course Materials Market Manager. Kym brings over five years of course materials management experience from multiple universities. She will be overseeing course materials operations at all four Tri-C campuses and will help to coordinate the Tri-C Books program, adoptions, ordering textbooks, and any other course materials needs you may have. She is happy to email or meet virtually to discuss any questions you have about your materials or interest in joining the Tri-C Books program, you can contact Kym at Kym.Redden@tri-c.edu
