

Use your Patient Access industry credential to earn college credits toward a Tri-C[®] degree!

What are the benefits?

- Receive college credits for completing the Patient Access Specialist Fast Track Training program, and passing industry certification, at no additional cost!
- Credits can be applied toward the Short-Term Certificate in Medical Billing Specialist or toward program admission requirements for Tri-C's various health professions degree programs.
- Certified Healthcare Access Associate credential earned through the PAS program retained.

Noncredit Course/Program	Recommendations	Credit Courses Awarded
ZHTH-1305 (Virtual) OR ZHTH-1105	Expertise equivalent to IT-1090 (three credit hours) is recommended for the field. Students may take the IT-1090 Challenge Exam to earn credit for this course.	HIM-1122 Medical Billing Practices for Healthcare Providers (three credit hours) MA-1010 Introduction to Medical Terminology (two credit hours)
Expertise equivalent to IT-1090 (three credit hours) is recommended for the field. Students may take the IT-1090 Challenge Exam to earn credit for this course.

Next Steps

- Complete the noncredit workforce training program.
- Earn the associated industry credential.
- Complete the Tri-C application for credit courses and programs.

For more information, call 216-987-2925.